GROUP NOTES

ENTERING THE GROUP ZONE

1. How do you define “missions”?
2. Pastor Glenn talked about living a missional life. What is the difference between someone who occasionally does something “missional” and someone who lives a missional lifestyle?
3. If someone observed your life this past week, what specific actions/words would that person identify as missional living (at work, school, home, activities, etc.)? Give one or two examples.
4. Identify one routine part of your everyday life where you see yourself representing Jesus and living missionally.
5. Looking back at this week’s message, was there anything that particularly challenged you, confused you, or caught your attention?

Take a minute to review the sermon and complete the sermon notes on the previous page for anyone who might have missed it.

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Read 2 Corinthians 5:17-21. In verse 18, what does an “ambassador” mean? What does it mean for a Christian to represent Christ as an ambassador in everyday life?
 - List one area in your life in which you find yourself being Christ’s ambassador. Explain.
 - These verses emphasize reconciliation. Why is reconciliation such an important part of living a missional life as Christ’s ambassador?
2. Read Colossians 4:2-6. What are Paul’s prayer requests in verses 3 and 4?
 - Look at verses 5 and 6: how should Christians conduct themselves with non-Christians? Why is such conduct important for missional living?
 - From verse 5, what does it mean to “make the most of every opportunity”?
 - Share one practical way to show how you can apply verses 5 and 6 in your life this week.

TAKING IT HOME

Below, write down one area of your life where you could be more intentional about living missionally. Consider ways you can improve in that area.
